The mushroom risotto was terrific and the baklava dessert was worth leaving room for. Great service, though the place was a little quiet. On a busy night this would be even better.

Nice ambience, even though the dining area is quite open. Cocktails were thematic, tasty, and not overpriced ($10). We started with a small plate: Pear, Brie and prosciutto with arugula. Perfect to share between 2 people, lightly dressed, great sweet/salty/creamy combo. I had chickpea stew and a side...

Great mediterranean flavors, very spacious. Good beer selection, full bar. The lamb shank falls right off the bone. Delicious falafel.

Waiter was covering as bar tender, but didn't know much about making drinks. Mediocre food.

Without a doubt this place is truly awesome. It has some of the best food I've had in a really long time. The place advertises itself as Mediterranean, which is technically correct but not exactly what you would think of. It utilizes middle eastern ingredients cooked and prepared in a way that re...

Came here for a weekday dinner with my mother. It was our first time. The cucumber dill cocktail was great! We ordered the eggplant flatbread, the pear and brie salad, and the pan seared branzino. The branzino was literally amazing. I could have eaten two! Service was a little slow. Definitely going...

Maybe the nicest restaurant in all of South City. Their flatbread entrees, kebab and beef+lamb burgers are great. I've only had lunch here and haven't had dinner here yet but they have what looks like a fully stocked bar that could make good cocktails.

This place Yelp's well, but I was not blown away considering the price. Took a former co-worker to lunch to catch up. It was great company and a good conversation. While we talked we nibbled on hummus and pita. The lunch main was a lamb kabob, two to be exact, over a bed of cukes and squash ...

Well, what can I say, another great find thanks to YELP! :) We went to Amoura as we had no idea where to go due to the neighborhood. This is a nice gem that you would never find as it is off the beaten path, however, it is worth trying out. Very modern and clean inside. We started off with th...

Going to give this 3.5. 4 stars for being in South City. It's definitely one of the better restaurants in the area. Very clean, spacious, nice ambiance and good service. Drinks - try the Turkish something. You know it's going to be a good cocktail when it comes with a single big cube of ice! It was ...

Top notch. I was driving around looking for something a little different when I found Amoura. I couldn't be happier. The food was awesome. The service helpful and warm. I would say it's a place to eat slowly and talk the night away with a date. Quiet enough for a conversation busy enough that you do...

This restaurant is a gem. Some of the best food I've eaten. The food was so delicious I couldn't even be bothered about the mistakes (which they compensated for). I'm under the impression there is nothing bad on the menu, but I haven't tried everything yet (nor will I, I don't eat pork and I don't...

WOW! You really should try this place. The food here was cook to perfection. Also, the Bartender knows how to make a proper Old fashion. If you don't know what a Old fashion drink is, look it up. If you are thinking about trying this place out, seriously, do so.

The best falafel ever. My favorites are the carrot and avocado small plate entree and the eggplant flat bread. The food and service are top notch. As I sit here writing this review, I'm stealing bites of the potatoes side dish for the lamb burger... yummy for my tummy! My go to place for delicious ...
